Kids Enjoy "Junior Ranger" Activities at Silver Strand State Beach

Silver Strand State Beach, Coronado, CA - Children 7 through 12 years of age can earn their "Junior Rangers" award this year at Silver Strand State Beach, where guided "Junior Ranger" activities will take place on upcoming Saturdays from 3:30pm to 4:30pm. There are over a dozen different outdoor activities kids can attend, including topics like birdwatching, beach safety, and the California grunion.

Junior Ranger Jessica Holland of San Diego says, "Junior Rangers is so awesome and they give you prizes...Heather is really great and you learn something new every week! My favorite class was about the Snowy Plover, an endangered bird who lives on the beach. I love Junior Rangers!"

"Junior Rangers" is a statewide educational program through California State Parks where children from 7 to 12 years old may participate. The program emphasizes stewardship of park resources and connects park resource issues to global concerns. Awards such as pins, certificates, and patches are given to participants as children progress through the program. This exciting program is designed to help children discover the rich natural and cultural heritage preserved in California State Parks.
